

Hey undergrads,
if you are interested in a

PAID SUMMER INTERNSHIP

consider STEMAP....

The New Mexico EPSCoR STEM Advancement Program (STEMAP) engages undergraduate students in the research funded by NM EPSCoR. Each summer, as part of NM SMART Grid Center project, 12 students will spend 8 weeks in a research lab.

who

Undergraduate students from New Mexico regional universities, community colleges and tribal colleges.

what

$4,000 stipend + living expenses
8 weeks in a research lab in:

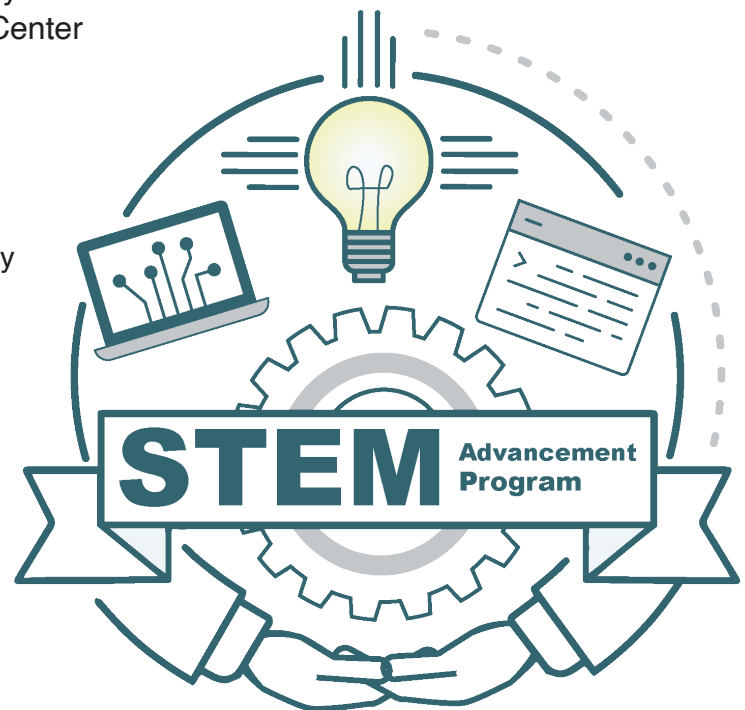

- Electrical Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Computer Science
- Cyber Security

when

June - July 2020

where

Selected participants will work in a research lab at UNM, NMT, or NMSU.

APPLY

<https://cutt.ly/STEMAP20>